The Shield

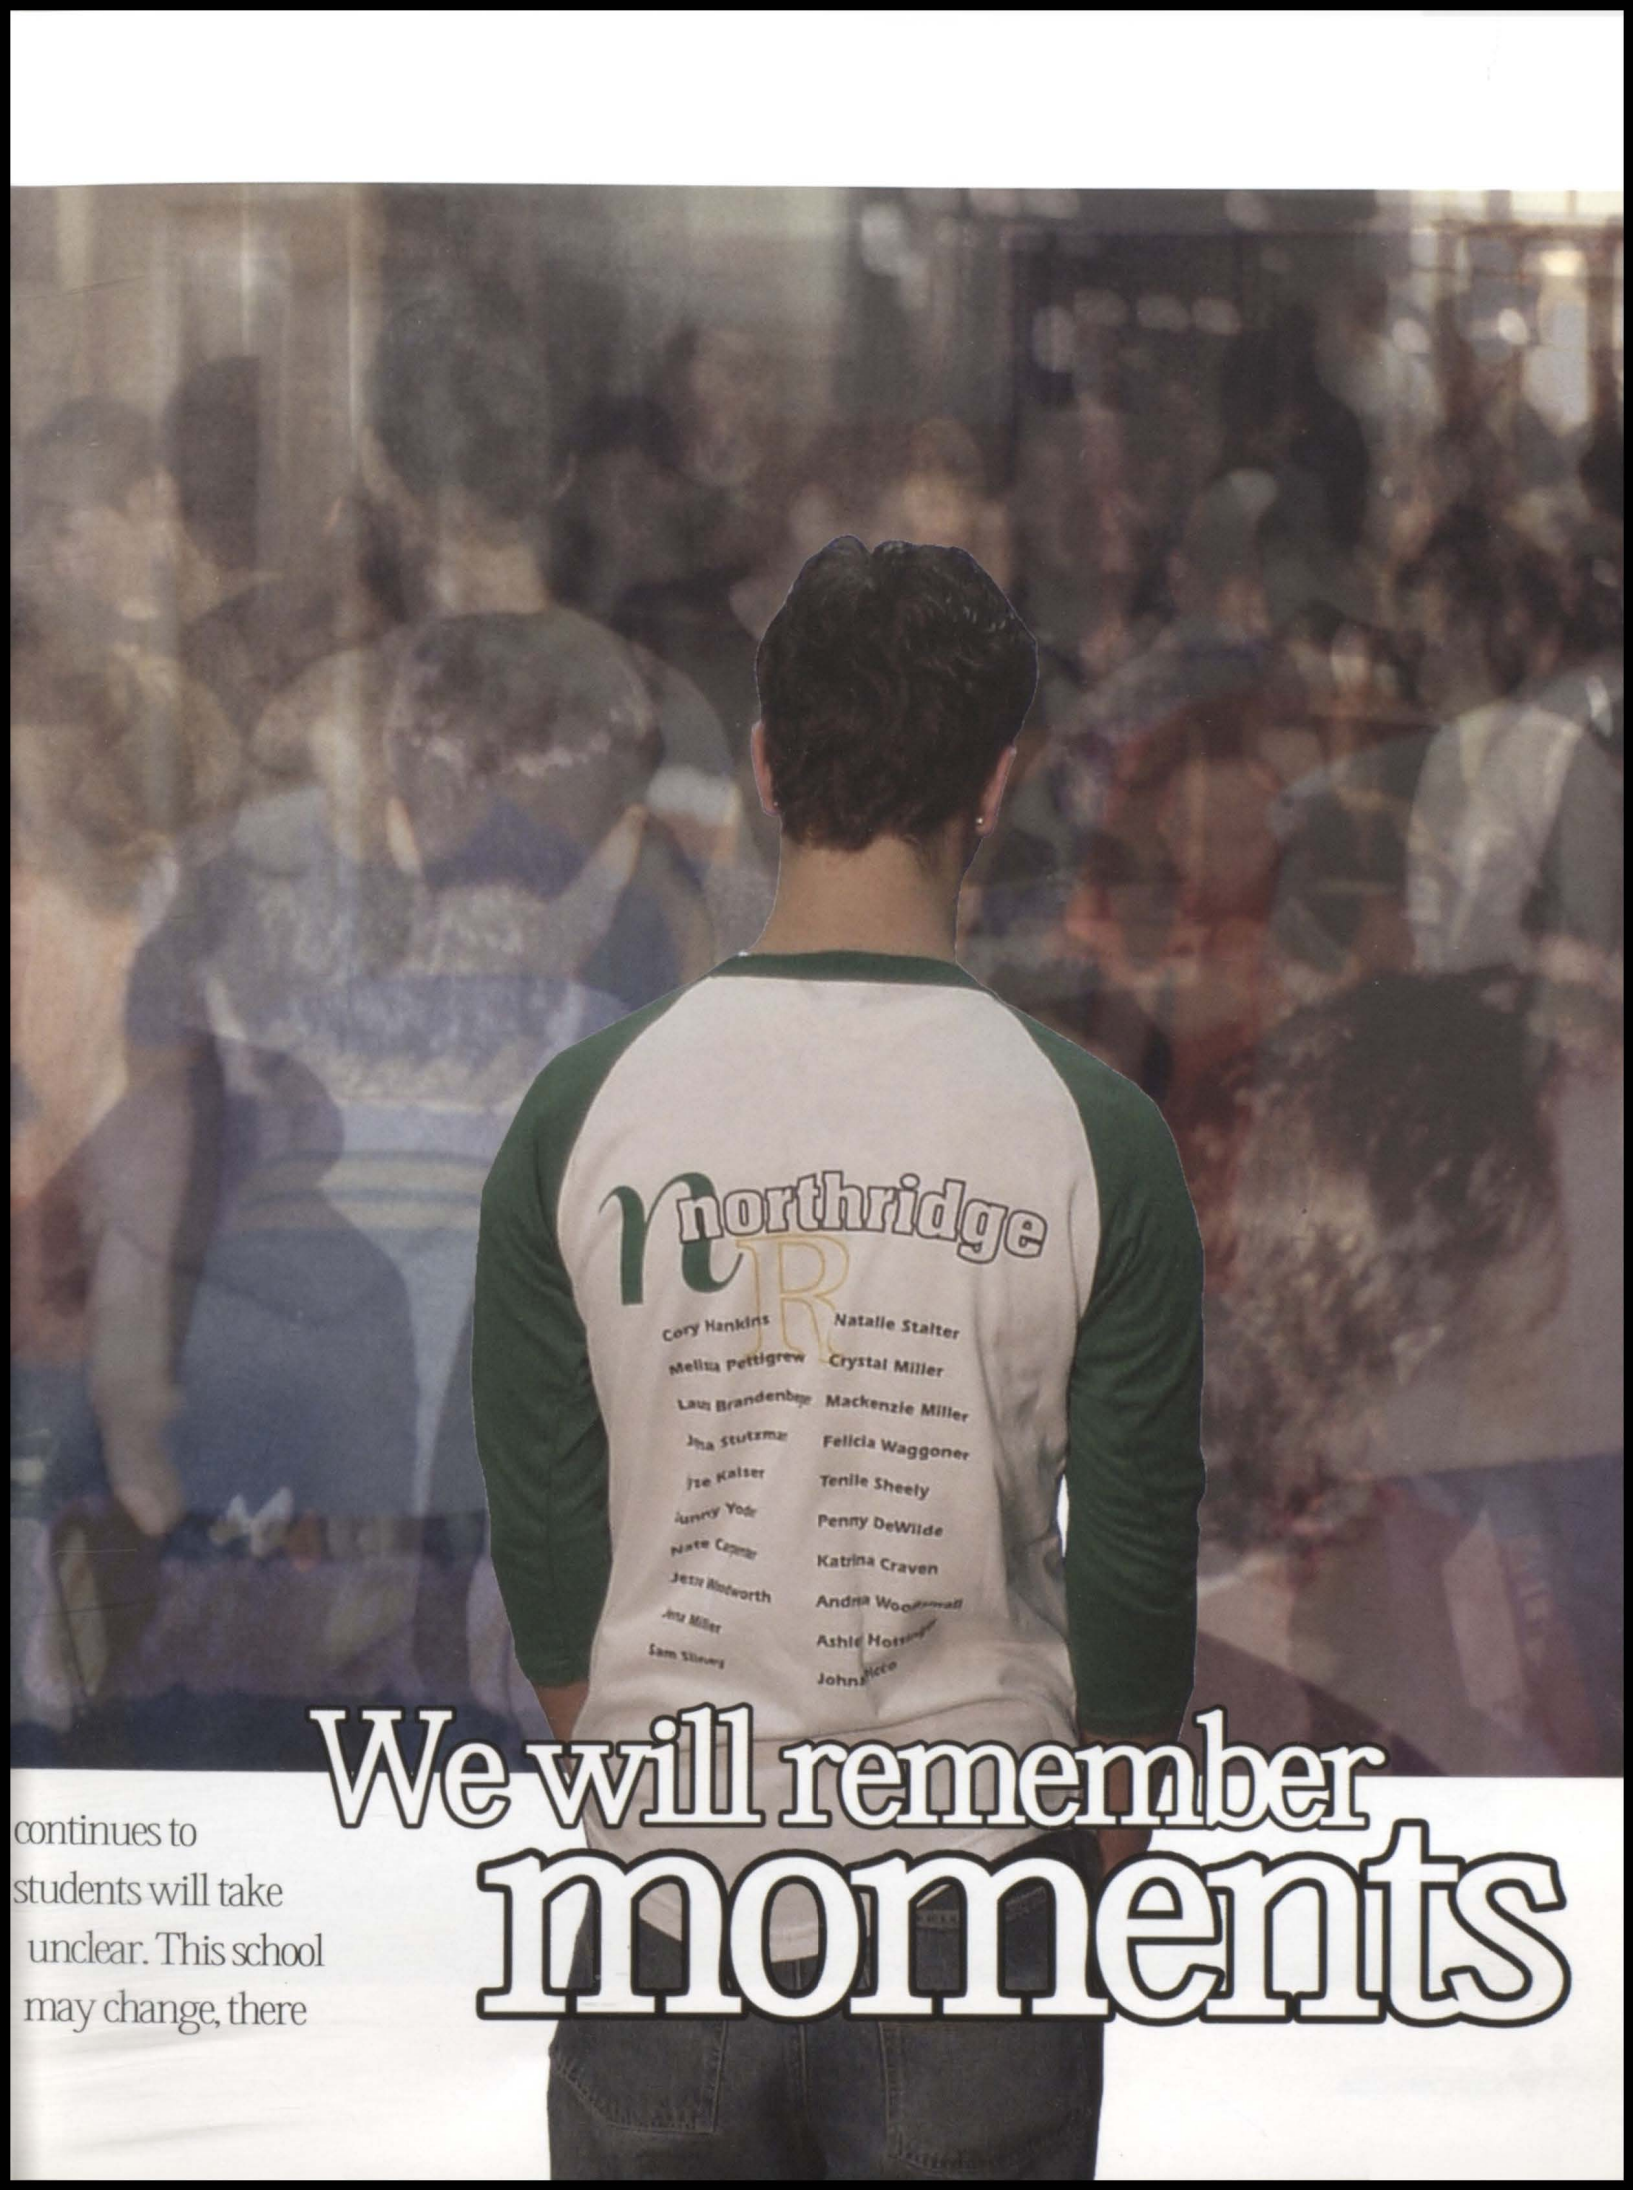

Take a glimpse into our world...

The cars, the fashion, the spirit. We won't forget the dances, the friends, the times of grief, and most of all the smiles we shared because after all this is us...then.

We will not remember days

Will these pictures be enough to remind us of all the days that we've spent in this place? As time press on we are forced to keep up with the endless struggle that is high school. Every year the one step closer to their future and work toward a point in their lives where so many things are will always be an array of different faces and personalities, but regardless of how our school will always be moments that can only exist within the walls of Northridge.

Sometimes it pays to have a clean locker. Shawn Smeltzer, on the other hand, poses by his locker crammed full of Clearly Canadian bottles and past assignments.

Jesse Woodworth dribbles the ball down the field during the first sectional game against Bethany. The Raiders won 2-0, with both goals scored by Jesse.

Freshmen Courtney Hankins and Kara Shetler make a sign for their Austin Powers float. The theme this year was movies.

You can't take physics without the experience of making a rat trap car. Lindsey Null and John Wickersham plan their design for Mr. Gerber's class. The winning car didn't have to write up a lab report.

Another turning point a fork in the road
Time grabs you by the wrist directs you where to go
So make the best of this test and don't ask why
It's not a question but a lesson learned in time

It's something unpredictable
But in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life.

So take the photographs and old frames in your mind
Hang it on the shelf in good health and good time
Tales of memories and dead skin on trial
For what it was worth it was worth all the while.

It's something unpredictable
But in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life.

Tennis is often looked at as an individual sport, but each player is only a small part of the whole. Each personal match was part of a greater competition this year. This season the girls tennis team had to overcome great adversity, but in the end it all paid off. The team was very energetic and always had a good story to tell on those long bus rides home, but the team soon realized when it was time to get down to business.

JENA MILLER & GESSICA HUFNAGLE

"Overall, this season was a huge success, one of the best records NR has had in a long time! We both had so much fun this year working with all the girls and without their positive attitudes and hardwork, the season wouldn't have been half of the success that it was. Being Co-Captain's together rocked our socks off and will be something we'll never forget."

Raelynn Mott brings her "Big Stick."

"The way a TEAM plays determines its success. You can have the greatest group of individual StArS in the world, but if they don't play together the TEAM won't be worth a dime."

THEY GIVE US SOMETHING TO LOOK FORWARD TO AND MOTIVATE US TO GET THROUGH THE MONOTONOUS DAYS OF CLASS. THE FALL DRAMA, THE MUSICAL, HOMECOMING, WINTER CELEBRATION, PROM, AND FINALLY GRADUATION. THESE ARE THE MEMORIES THAT WILL MATTER IN THE END.

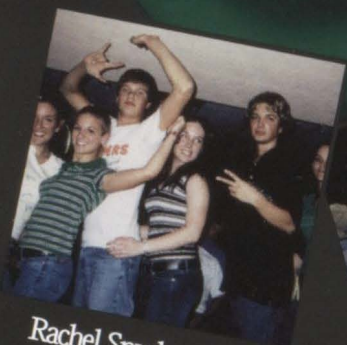

Homecoming 2002

What a busy week! With boys and girls soccer sectionals, spirit days, and floatbuilding, it was hard to find time to breathe. But somehow we managed to pull it all together, and it turned

Embarrassing Car Stories

I was working for the county this summer and was driving one of their vans. I stopped along the side of the road and got out. Suddenly I noticed the van driving away without me. I had forgotten to put it in park and had to chase it down the road! ~Cassie Berney

Well, we don't have a car story, but this summer we worked at a golf course and Melissa was driving the golf cart at an excessive speed. Out of nowhere we hit a bump and Michelle flew out. Melissa kept going and didn't notice until I was walking towards the golf cart! ~Michelle Slattery & Melissa Weirich more embarrassing car stories

I was coming up to the Tennis Parking lot stop sign but there was no one coming anyway so I thought I'd pull a cool power slide through that 90 degree right turn. So I went through the intersection at about 45 mph. I began to go sideways but instead of sliding around the turn I slid through the grass on the other side of the road and right through the fence. The fence post bent and got stuck under my car so I had to drive forward to get it out. ~Jason Young

2004

OUR EXPERIENCE IS OLD ENOUGH TO KNOW THAT DESTINY IS NOT A PROMISE BUT
A QUEST-AN EXODUS TOWARDS WORLD TRUTH ABOUT
OURSELVES AND EVERYTHING
WE TOUCH.

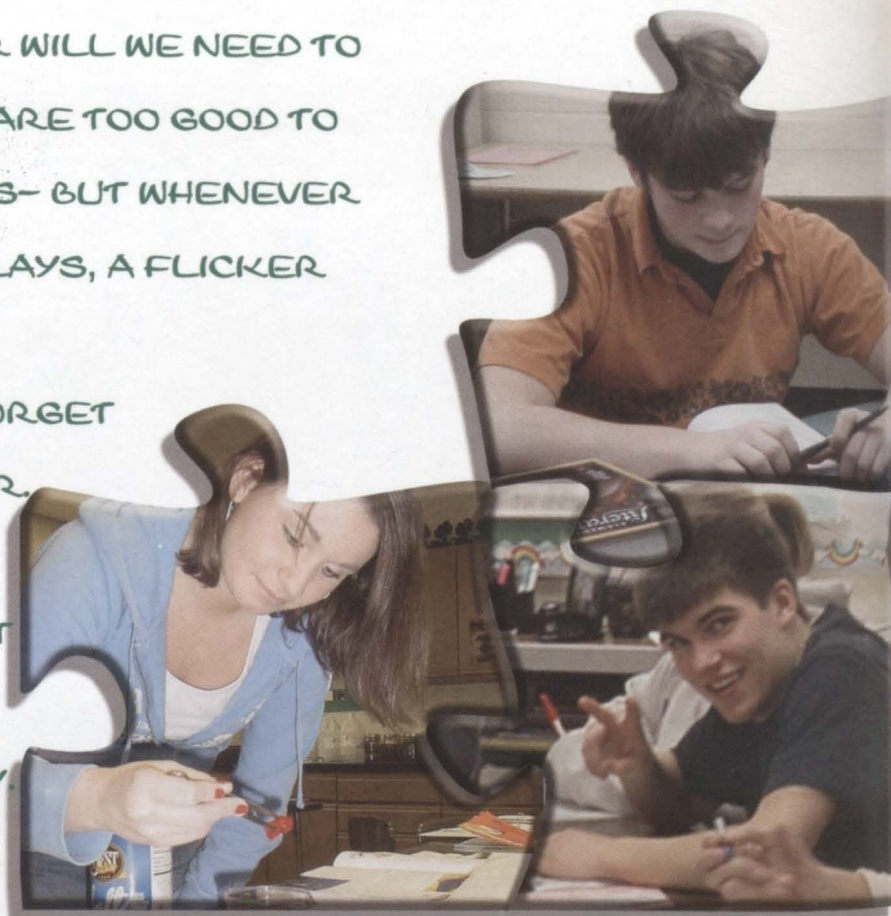

WHO ARE WE? WE ARE THE ACHIEVERS, THE DREAMERS, INVENTORS AND WALL-BREAKERS, THE MOVERS, THE SHAKERS, AND SHIFTERS. WE ARE UNIQUE. EVEN OUR MUSIC HAS COLOR. WE DON'T JUST TALK- WE RAP. WE AREN'T JUST SMART-WE'VE GOT GAME.

SOPHOMORES

CAN THESE PICTURES CAPTURE
ENOUGH MEMORIES TO LAST? OR WILL WE NEED TO REMEMBER? THESE MEMORIES ARE TOO GOOD TO FADE. MAYBE BLURRED AT TIMES- BUT WHENEVER THAT SMELL COMES OR SONG PLAYS, A FLICKER
OF YOU WILL APPEAR.

WE CANNOT FORGET
THESE TIMES OR EACH OTHER.
I'LL SEE YOU AGAIN, THERE IS
NO GOODBYE.. RIGHT HERE RIGHT NOW, REMINDING EVERYONE TO PERSERVERE, AND LIVE DEEPLY.

★ Melissa Pettigrew ★

It was the last time she'd see the river from that window. The last time of anything has the poignancy of death itself. This that I see now, she thought, to see no more this way. Oh, the last time how clearly you see everything; as though a magnifying light had been turned on it. And you grieve because you hadn't held it tighter when you had it every day. What had Granma Mary Rommely said? "To look at everything as though you were seeing it either for the first or last time: thus is your time on earth filled with glory."

Melissa,

You have already learned to look at your life in the same manner as these words from "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn". This is evident in your kindness and thoughtfulness to everyone and in the way you treasure life. Never forget these words and your life will be forever meaningful. We are very proud of you and all of your accomplishments.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Mitchell

Trevor Kropf

THANK YOU TREVOR

The unfortunate thing about having children is that those children grow, and all that is left for the parents and family is the memories of that childhood. Thank you, Trevor, for the best memories that parents could hope for.

You have always given the best of yourself to everything that you have done. You've worked hard, showed enthusiasm, and dedicated yourself to every goal that you've wanted to achieve. And you achieved most of those goals with a smile on your face, a mischievous smile at times, but still a smile.

As you enter this next phase of life, we hope that you approach it with the same dedication, pride, and attitude that you have had with everything that you have done. With that you will provide us with many more fond memories for years to come.

Congratulations, good luck, and thank you.

WHEN YOU WERE BORN WE WERE PROUD PARENTS, BECAUSE GOD HAD BLESSED US WITH A PERFECT LITTLE BOY, EACH DAY AS YOU GREW WE CONTINUED TO BE BLESSED. FROM YOUR VERY FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL TILL YOUR LAST, WE WATCHED YOU GROW INTO A FINE YOUNG MAN. YOU HAVE MADE US PROUD OF WHAT YOU HAVE BECOME. AS YOU CONTINUE ON WITH YOUR LIFE ALWAYS REMEMBER TO LISTEN TO YOUR HEART AND FOLLOW YOUR DREAMS NO MATTER WHAT THEY MIGHT BE. REMEMBER WHAT I HAVE ALWAYS TOLD YOU, "DON'T EVER GIVE UP BECAUSE ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE." THANKS FOR BEING EXACTLY WHAT WE HAD HOPED FOR. CONGRATULATIONS!

It is wonderful watching you mature into a beautiful young lady with love for the Lord in your heart. We could not be more proud of you. We anxiously await the good things we pray life will bring you. Congratulations on reaching this milestone. The best is yet to come.

Vanessa,

You know how much we love you, but do you know how proud we are of you, too? We're so proud of your successes, your skills and talents, your hard work and accomplishments.

Cassie Berney

Cassie,

From the day that you were born, we knew that we had received a very exceptional gift when you were placed in our arms. Each and every day since then you have only strengthened our beliefs as to the truly incredible person that you really are. You have emerged into a very beautiful, intelligent, and caring person that any parent would be so very proud of. We now have come to that very difficult point in your life where we, as parents, have to let go. This has to be one of the hardest things we will probably ever have to do, but we realize that you need to be able to spread your wings and start a new phase of your life without us to guide you. We can only hope that we have given you the foundation in which you can survive in this great big, sometimes turbulent, world on your own. We know that you WILL succeed at anything you choose to do. We love you so very, very much!!!

Stacy-

It's hard to believe that you are graduating from high school. It seems like just yesterday you were running around in pigtails carrying your favorite doll, and within a blink of an eye you have grown up and are ready to leave home for your next adventure in life.

You are a wonderful daughter and a great sister. We are very proud of everything you have accomplished. Even though you will be missed, we know you will excel in college next year. Remember to always follow your dreams and we will stand behind you every step of the way

Love always,

Mom, Dad, and Robby

P.S. I still think you should reconsider and leave Maleka at home!

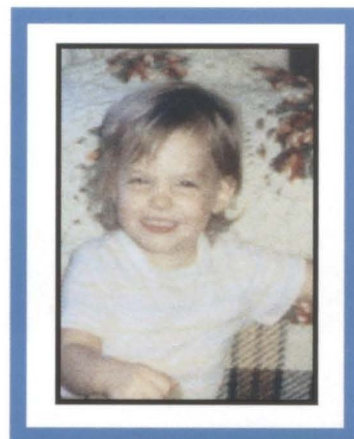

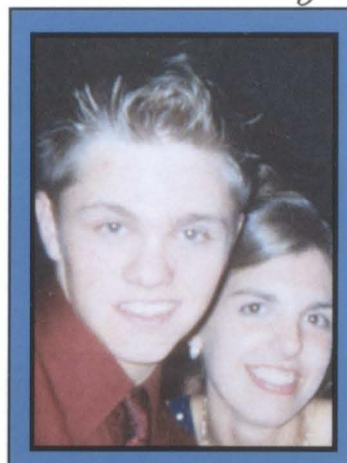

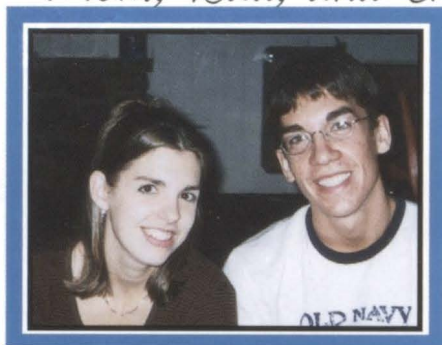

Danielle,

Danielle Yeager

CHILD OF MINE

-Carole King

Although you see the world different than me... Sometimes I can touch upon the wonders that you see. All the new colors in pictures you've designed. Oh, yes, sweet darlin' so glad you are a child of mine.

You don't need direction; you know which way to go. And I don't want to hold you back, I just want to watch you grow.

You're the one that taught me you don't have to look behind. Oh, yes, sweet darlin' so glad you are a child of mine.

Nobody's gonna kill your dreams or tell you how to live your life. There'll always be people to make it hard for a while, but you'll change their heads when they see you smile.

The time you were born in may not have been the best. But you can make the time to come better than the rest.
I know you will be honest if you can't always be kind. Oh, yes, sweet darlin' so glad you are a child of mine.

Congratulations Julie,
so glad you are a child
of ours.

Child of ours, child
of ours
Oh, yes, sweet darlin'
so glad you are a child of ours.

Kara Perkins

Kara,

You are a treasure from God.
You have been a joy to our lives and we are very proud of you.
We pray that God will use your friendly, funny, and encouraging personality for His glory. You have so much to offer the world.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Kelsey Lynch

Kelsey,

It's so easy to remember your first few steps and how I held out my hand for you to hold. As each year has passed you've taken more steps, some will eventually lead away from me, but my hand is always here for you just in case... Thank you for coming into my life and for forgiving my many errors I made in raising you, my first child. Thank you for allowing me the chance to learn and grow with you. I love being your Mom. From the moment you were born, you were such a beautiful addition to our family. Now that you're growing up and making your own path, you will be a beautiful addition to the world.

Always,
Mom

Cassie Bjurstrom

Dear Cassie,

It is hard to put into words the joy you have been in our lives.

God is so good...

Maria Hale

Maria "Danielle",

What a beautiful young lady you have become! Jeremiah 1:4-5 says, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, before you were born I set you apart." God has called you with a purpose-- a reason for living, a goal to achieve-- and He gave you the grace to fulfill it. The more clearly you understand your purpose the more closely you will be connected with God's grace to fulfill it. Keep pursuing Him with the passion you have! We are so very proud of you!

To our daughter,

No longer in diapers or middle of the night feedings, or reading the bedtime stories, such time has passed.

Standing in the background, we have watched you grow. Shared moments of happiness, sadness, courage, and hope

You have the gift to listen and hear what is being said, not many people do. Do not stop dreaming, for you can make your dreams your goal. Do not be afraid of changes, look for and explore the adventure that life has to offer. We are thankful, blessed, and praise God for you, our daughter.

We love you,

Mom and Dad

Tash,

I am so proud of the intelligent, mature, and beautiful person you have become. I am so thankful God has given me you as my sister. The Lord truly has sent me an Angel that has given me support and love during the time I needed you most. You lighten up peoples' lives with your presence and have given others and myself a shoulder to cry on. You always have a lust for life, and you always face the world with a smile. Thank you for everything you have done for me and for being the wonderful person you are. I know you will go far in life and will be very successful in your future, whatever it may be. I look forward to the future memories I'll share with you. I admire you and will love you forever!

Our first 18 years with you were wonderful.
Now it's time to put your play ring away, and go the world and be whatever you want.

Remember to stop, watch, and listen to people around you. You will learn and understand great things. Remember everything Mrs. Sipping taught

Alyssa Short

Alyssa,

Even at an early age, you had such a sense of adventure -- from piloting fishing boats in Alaska, to building a house in Puerto Rico, to teaching children in a remote village in Africa, to rock climbing in Kentucky. You always see the good, always setting goals to be the best that you could be. We are very proud of you!

Love,

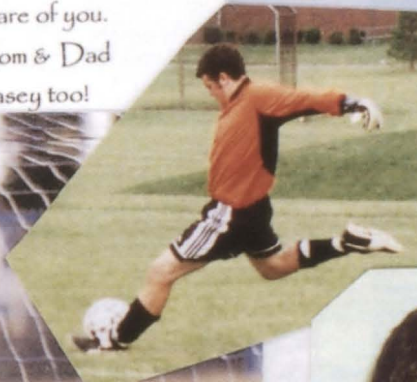

Dad, Mom, Spencer, and Logan

John Branston Shoup

John,

There are so many things we want for you, so many wishes in our hearts as we watch you grow into your own life. We wish you a world of adventure and experience and also the serenity that comes from listening to your inner voice as the world rushes around you. We wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence, and the wisdom to choose your battles carefully. We wish you the satisfaction of seeing your goals achieved and also the true contentment that is born of simple things – work well-done, friends well-loved, moments caught and cherished. And our greatest wish is that you will always remember how much you are loved and how very proud we are of you.

We love you, Mom & Dad
Amanda and Casey too!

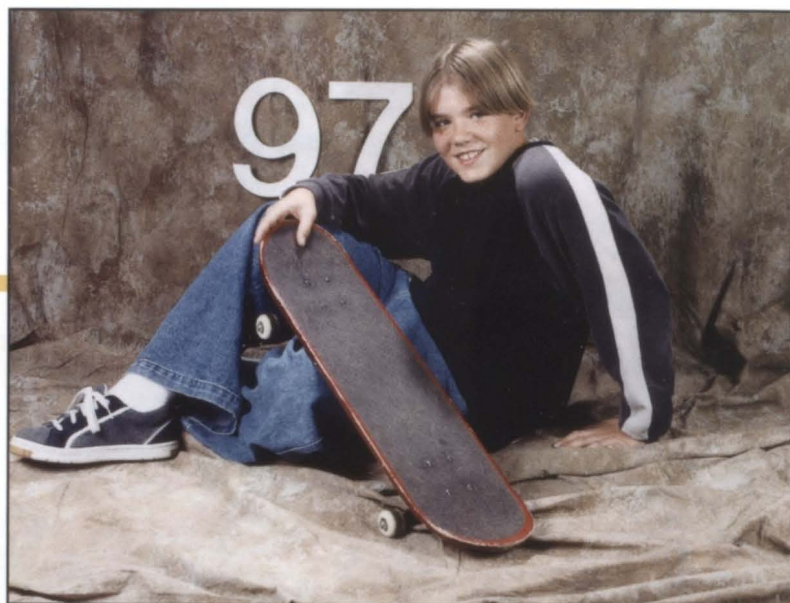

The best things in life are the people we love, the places we've been, and the memories we've made along the way.

Jenna Stutzman

Dear Jenna:

What joy and delight you have brought our family the last 18 years! We thank God for the special way He made you -- your creativity, gentleness, discipline, intelligence, and beauty. We have so many wonderful memories of that quiet, reserved little girl growing into a beautiful, competent young lady. We know, with God's help, that you will be successful as you begin to pursue other goals in your life. Our home will not be the same without you and we will miss you very much as we place you and your future into God's hands. Our prayer for you is Proverbs 3:5-6,

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight."

We trust that your prayer is Psalm 86:11-12:

"Teach me your way, O Lord, and I will walk in your truth; give me an undivided heart that I may fear Your name. I will praise you, O Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify your name forever."

With all our love,

Mom and Dad

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS GOOD LUCK!
